They all own a Woody Painting

Be Sensitive Art Gifting Project

We want to gift you an original painting by James e. Woody.

A dark, grainy, black and white image showing a group of people walking. The image is heavily shadowed, making the figures appear as dark shapes against a lighter, textured background. The text is overlaid on the center of the image.

Woody's paintings are

Other than normal sight

A photograph of a group of people in a meeting, with text overlaid. The text reads: "of what has never been experienced before." The words "never" and "experienced" are highlighted in yellow. The background shows several people in business attire, some with their hands raised, suggesting a collaborative or brainstorming session.

Select woody paintings are gifted to invited philanthropists.

Be Sensitive to yourself, our environment and each other.

We are advocates for organizations and projects that support the needs of underserved and under recognized gifted and talented children.

THINK GLOBAL - ACT LOCAL.

We can help grow awareness and gain more support for the nonprofits and social enterprises you care about.

“Together, we are remarkable.”

A photograph showing the aftermath of a disaster, likely an earthquake. The scene is filled with rubble, including twisted metal, broken concrete, and debris. In the center, two people wearing orange jackets are walking through the wreckage. To the right, a partially destroyed building with a corrugated metal roof stands amidst the ruins. The background shows more damaged structures and trees under a hazy sky.

We also support humanitarian and environmental projects for national and international organizations.
